

David Reilly

Participatory Budgeting in communities

PB Scotland Network

Join more than 500 members:
www.pbscotland.scot/network

@PB_Scotland
www.pbscotland.scot

600+ people involved in conferences and peer to peer learning events

Supported 25 community-led PB projects funded by Community Choices

More than 40 PB event reports from Ayrshire to Orkney

Interactive map showing 141 PB initiatives across 25 council areas

Free to join and participate

In a slide

When done well; Participatory Budgeting sparks multiple positive outcomes.

When not done well; it doesn't.

Participatory budgeting is done well when it is done with and not to communities by

- being purposeful,
- sharing power,
- starting with or building on community priorities,
- being guided by values.

Community engagement

A purposeful process which develops a working relationship between communities, community organisations and public and private bodies to identify and act on community needs and ambitions

Scottish Referendum Should Scotland be an independent country?

YES

NO

Electoral Commission

Free Family Fun Day

Your School - You Decide

Free BBQ, children's entertainment, face painting and lots more!

Are you a parent/carer or a child who attends
Miller or John Paul II Primary? Yes!

Come along and hear the ideas that parents at your school have been coming up with to spend £20,000 to reduce the cost of the school day for your child then vote on the one's you like the best.

Saturday 18th March 11am - 2pm

ENCOURAGEMENT | LOCAL INVESTMENT | FUNDING
EMPOWERMENT | LOCAL INVESTMENT | FUNDING

Values

- Local ownership and direct involvement
- Equality
- Community development & empowerment
- Shared responsibility
- Deliberation
- Transparency
- Move toward the mainstream

Values

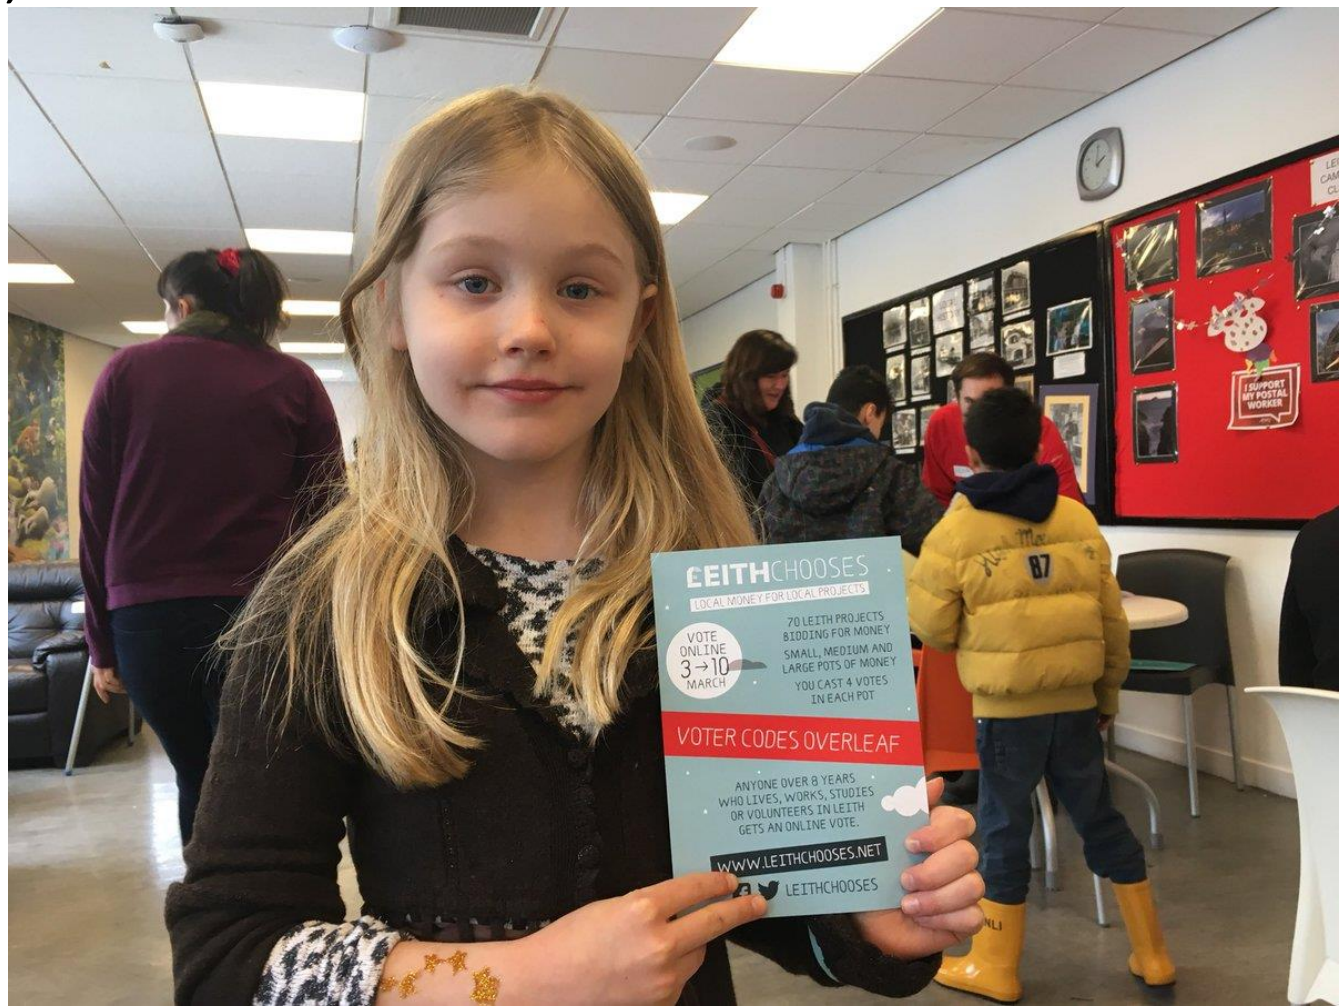

- Local ownership and direct involvement
- Equality
- Community development & empowerment
- Shared responsibility
- Deliberation
- Transparency
- Moving toward the mainstream

“I came to vote because I want my voice to be heard & I think it’s important that the community get to decide and not just the Council. I voted for things that are important to me, less loneliness and homelessness”

“I came to vote because I want my voice to be heard & I think it’s important that the community get to decide and not just the Council. I voted for things that are important to me, less loneliness and homelessness”

Invest in communities as we mainstream

Credit to Artist: Norrie Millar. Colourist: Rebecca Horner - inkpotcomics.com

In a slide

When done well; Participatory Budgeting sparks multiple positive outcomes.

When not done well; it doesn't.

Participatory budgeting is done well when it is done with and not to communities by

- being purposeful,
- sharing power,
- starting with or building on community priorities,
- being guided by values.

https://pbscotland.scot/resources/

Home / About / News / Conference 2017 / Network / Map / Contact

Examples, tools, publications & more

Here you can find resources related to PB. You can search for themes, topics or organisations, or explore the most popular tags below.

Sign up and join 418 members shaping PB in Scotland report what works scotland resource scottish government pb partners UK guide evaluation local authorities case studies research participatory democracy

Tell us where PB is happening near you on our map

View our map of PB in Scotland

Digital PB Case Studies

These case studies by Demosc capture key learning points from Scotland's early exploration of digital tools to support participatory processes at a local level.

Glasgow's Participatory Budgeting Evaluation Toolkit

This toolkit is intended to support any individual or group organising a PB activity to plan how to evaluate their

Participatory Budgeting in Edinburgh

The City of Edinburgh Council has produced a series of videos on PB in the city. In addition to introducing PB, the videos give perspectives on

Hear the Voice, Make the Change: Guide to evaluating PB processes

This comprehensive guide from PB Partners lays out 10 essential actions to record, monitor and evaluate the

Grant making through Participatory Budgeting

A 'How To' Guide for Community Led Organisations and community engagement workers

Scottish Government Community Choices Programme