• Participatory and Inclusive – How?

- It's the whole process
  - Language, artefacts, processes, rules, norms, culture
- Requires work, skill and knowledge at different stages
  - Deliberate, intentional, respectful, technical, facilitative + good fundamentals
- Isn't always the same and doesn't always work
  - Experimental, patient, iterative, bespoke

- Participatory and Inclusive
- – Making a Shift
- Dig in
- Build Up
- Build Out

End Poverty Edinburgh

‘Poverty means many things to me. From the stereotypical view of a homeless person sleeping rough, to the forgotten family suffering through in-work poverty. Poverty is not knowing where your next meal is coming from. Poverty is being unable to heat your home or pay your bills. Poverty is only just surviving - not thriving.’

We tackle poverty by sharing opportunities, wealth and power more equally

“The 1% Participatory Budgeting target remains for those who can meet it but with flexibility for local authorities who may need more time to reach that goal. Together we will empower people and give them more control over spending which will transform lives and communities.”

Aileen Campbell
Communities Secretary
